

What Our Customers Say About Improving Access to Psychological Therapies

100% of customers felt that our employment support has contributed to their mental health recovery

After their session, 100% of customers felt positive about what steps to take to reach their career goals

71% of customers feel more motivated after working with their employment adviser

86% of customers feel more confident after working with their employment adviser

116 total number of customers supported this quarter

100%

of customers satisfied with the service they received

100%

of customers would recommend us to family and friends

“

It was empathy and listening to me that helped. I realised I was not to blame for what was happening to me at work. Just having an outside person to speak to was helpful.

”

“

Excellent listening, first class emotional support, 100% non-judgemental, great support!

”

“

All the help I had was amazing, I could not ask for more, it helped me to achieve my goals and to get me my future job. My advisor was brilliant and helped me through this with all her support - you do an amazing job.

”